Music Enlivens the Proceedings and the Election of Permanent Officers Closes the Interesting Day

The Territorial Teachers' association met again at the university yesterday morning. First on the programme was a paper by Prof. Page, of Ogden, entitled, That examinations as commonly conducted, furnish the best means of determining the graduation and promotion of pupils and the efficiency of teachers." The paper proved to be a most interesting one and in the discussion which followed,

THE CITY CREEK ICE CO

Profs. Collins, Christensen and Wooton made valuable suggestions on the subject of examinations.

Prof. Benner then made a thoughtful address on incentives to scholarship on the part of teachers, and at the conclusion Judge Sutherland favored the association with a masterly address on the school law and education in general. It was by all odds the finest address on the school law and education in general. It was by all odds the finest address on the school law and education in general. It was by all odds the finest address on the subject ever delivered here and was listened to with Superintendents Millspaugh, Wilson and Perry commented upon it at some length. In the afternoon Professor Avery read an interesting paper.

We had not been long seated in tors of the West Side Rapid Transit company, it was resolved that a meeting be held of all persons interested in the dovelopment of properties lying west of the Jordan. If you are an owner or represent the owner of any of this property, or in any way interested in the advancement of the west side, you are requested to attend the meeting to be held at 8 p.m. Thursday, June 25, 1821, at the chamber of commerce, for the purpose of forming an association in the interest of the west side.

Girls.' We had not been iong seated in orchestral chairs when we were made aware of the advent of an American lady and gentleman. I observed the lady was a beautiful brupette, and I also observed that my friend seemed to experience some strange and powerful emotion. Soon he recovered himself sufficiently to whisper with bated breath, "Its she of Poets' Corner, of the Louvre; 'tis my ideal love.' "But I fear I tire you with my long recital." for the purpose of forming an association in the interest of the west side.
